1. Change of Air Force Member

The DCI expressed the members' appreciation of the very substantial contribution of General Lewis to the work of the IAC and to US intelligence. He welcomed General Walsh as Air Force member. General Lewis thanked the members for their unreserved cooperation and expressed his confidence in the continuing progress of US intelligence.

2. House Appropriations Committee Request

The DCI stated that, during a recent House Appropriations Subcommittee hearing on the CIA budget, Mr. Cannon, the Chairman of the Subcommittee, had requested that the DCI furnish an over-all estimate of the expenditures of the US intelligence community. The DCI in reply had stated that, though he had certain coordinating responsibilities, he did not have jurisdiction over the expenditures of any of the intelligence components of the government other than CIA and that he had no direct knowledge of their expenditures. Certain computations had been made by the Bureau of the Budget but that as far as the DCI knew these had not been accepted by the agencies concerned.

The DCI stated that, in view of Mr. Cannon's insistence, some further response to him was necessary. After a discussion by the members of the differing budgetary practices of the components of the intelligence community, the DCI concluded that he would have to consider further what he should do with respect to Mr. Cannon's request. The DCI indicated that he would discuss the matter with the Budget Bureau.

3. Approval of Minutes
29 April Meeting
(IAC-M-339)

7. Memorandum from GMIC re US
Equipment for USSR Satellite
(IAC-D-81/14.17, 30 April)

The members noted the GMIC memorandum and agreed that, provided the Exchange Committee has no objection, the DCI should address a letter to the Secretary of the Navy (a) expressing IAC endorsement, from an intelligence viewpoint, of the provision to the USSR of a mass spectrometer to be flown in an IGY-type rocket or satellite, and (b) informing the Secretary that the IAC Critical Collection Problems Committee will monitor subsequent intelligence developments. Mr. Cumming agreed to notify the DCI of the position of the Exchange Committee.
